READ

Read the lesson about traffic signals in the U.S. (Lesson 5) carefully and complete the activities that follow the identifying assignments.

- 1. Identify the signals.

Directions

Read the following assignment about different types of traffic lights and complete the chart.

What does a green traffic signal mean when it is lit?	The green signal means that you may go forward when you are in the intersection and you are not in the intersection.
What does a yellow traffic light mean? What signal does it give?	Caution. Warning. Yellow light means to stop.
What does a flashing yellow signal mean? What signal does it give?	Slow down because the signal is flashing yellow. Be alert because you may have to stop.
What does a flashing red signal mean? What signal does it give?	Stop when you see a flashing red signal. When you see a flashing red signal, you must stop and wait until the light turns green.

Directions

Read the following assignment and complete the chart about the different types of traffic signals.
